Soft Coated Wheaten Terrier Club of Northern California — Transfer Agreement

SCWTCNC Rescue was established to assist those Wheatens, who for whatever reason, are unable to reside in their current home and are in need of a new permanent home. SCWTCNC Rescue agrees to provide daily care including food, water, shelter and veterinary care as needed while placement is sought.

The present owners, undersigned, agree to transfer ownership of their Soft Coated Wheaten Terrier and to relinquish all rights, the signed AKC registration certificate, veterinary and health records, and any additional information concerning the SCWT to SCWTCNC Rescue.

It is understood that;

1. The SCWTCNC/SCWTCNC Rescue will own the SCWT prior to placement.
2. That the SCWTCNC has full authority and intent to transfer the ownership of the dog without consent of the former owner.
3. No guarantee can be made as to SCWTCNC Rescue's ability to place the dog.

The signed AKC Certificate must be turned over at the time of the transfer. Should the transferor represent that the AKC Certificate is lost, he/she agrees to obtain and execute a duplicate, and that if he/she fails to do so, he/she understands that he/she is giving up any and all rights to the dog at the time of signing this Transfer Agreement.

A copy of this Transfer Agreement, with the signatory's personal information blacked out, will be given to the adopter so he/she knows 1) that SCWTCNC Rescue is the owner of the dog and 2) the information the transferor has told SCWTCNC Rescue about the dog. It is understood that no information on the dog's new situation will be given to the transferor.
